MUSIC & FESTIVITY

Sounds of Sculpture

Sun 13 March, 10 am – 4 pm

A day of music, talks, walks, sculpture decorating, story-telling and lazing on the lawns to celebrate the Garden's living gallery of over 60 sculptures from Europe, Asia, Oceania and Australia that tell a tale of Sydney. Don't miss the Vintage Views around the Garden, see p 16.

Pick up a first edition of our Self-guided Garden Sculpture Walk to explore the passing passions, abiding values and creative impetus of Australia's founding town ... cast in stone.

Join the Volunteer Guides' Sculpture in the Garden Walk to hear more about the triumphs and misfortunes of our unmoving centurions, some of which date back to the colonial era.

Sounds of Sculpture through the day will include Vivaldi's Four Seasons performed by the Conservatorium Early Music Ensemble, Celtic harp, didgeridoo, Japanese flute and contemporary folk and roots music performed at the sculptures that share their spirit of time and place.

The sounds of sculptors will also be heard. Chris Booth will talk about the sculpture and wildlife habitat he has created from 200 tonnes of sandstone and 22,000 quartz stones. Vic Simms will explain the scarred tree designs he has carved on the dead Forest Red Gum growing here when the cove was a ceremonial ground for the Cadigal.

Children of all ages are invited to the Flowery Statue Dress-ups & Story-telling. Put a petal on a pedestal. Watch out for lively statues!

THEATRE

Shakespeare in the Garden

Thursdays to Sundays 10 – 27 March, 7.30 pm

Saturday matinees (As You Like It) 1.30 pm

Vibrant, magical performances by Sport for Jove Theatre Company of As You Like It and A Midsummer Night's Dream. Join the characters' wild adventures as they escape the claustrophobia of the city into the freedom of the woods in these two iconic tales of young women breaking the rules to chase their heart's desires. Laugh out loud at these dazzling comedies of love.

Damien Ryan and Terry Karabelas' acclaimed production of A Midsummer Night's Dream takes us through an artist's canvas into an enchanted world of classical Greek myth where mortal and supernatural love stories entwine.

As You Like It never ceases to delight as it mercilessly parodies our traditional visions of love, mocking the foolish excesses of our longings and desires, while still fulfilling our hopes of romantic bliss. The show's highlights include the new jazzy score for Shakespeare's timeless songs joyfully performed on fiddle, cello, guitar, clarinet and piano accordion.

DIRECTOR'S TALKS: SHAKESPEARE DECODED

Acclaimed Shakespearean director Damien Ryan explores why Shakespeare wrote the two featured plays, what they meant in his time and what they mean to us now. A wonderful companion piece to the productions directed by Damien.

Shakespeare's Dreaming

Wed 16 March, 6 – 7.30 pm

Damien Ryan unravels the mind-bending labyrinth of A Midsummer Night's Dream, the Bard's masterpiece about parenting, women in revolt, gods, myths and monsters, and what we no longer experience in modern cities, the true 'darkness' of the Elizabethan night.
