

A Declaration of GST for artists selling work

GST (Goods and Services Tax) is an Australian tax so most overseas artists would not have an ABN (Australian Business Number), however some may if they generally derive major income within Australia.

All Australian AND international artists offering works for sale must choose one tax option from the three below.

Please tick the appropriate option then state your name, sign and date the form. This form must then be attached to your entry form and sent with your artwork.

I do NOT have an ABN and do NOT charge GST – (most international artists would choose this option)

Please also complete the Statement by a Supplier form and attach
