

New Year's Eve at the Royal Botanic Garden and Domain

The Point Event Site

Accessibility & Inclusion

The Royal Botanic Garden and Domain Trust caters for people with accessibility needs to create a safe, inclusive and enjoyable event for all.

The Point is a vibrant yet relaxed night with unrivalled views of Sydney Harbour. Enjoy fortune tellers, an array of international food stalls and dance the night away to a live DJ & band.

Site Description

- The event site is approximately 900 metres or a 15-minute walk from the entry gate on Art Gallery Road
- The site is outdoors overlooking Sydney Harbour and as such the area has no shade or cover. Please be prepared for all weather conditions, bring a hat, sunscreen, raincoat, umbrella (small personal size only) or spray jacket
- There are accessible toilet facilities
- There is onsite security and first aid
- Pathways are sealed and there is a moderate slope to negotiate.
- There is low level, but adequate lighting
- The event site is unreserved with a variety of seating, please feel free to bring along your favourite rug or low-profile fold-up chair

Booking a Buggy Transfer

The Royal Botanic Garden and Domain Trust assists guests with accessibility requirements to get to their event by offering a bookable and complimentary buggy transfer service.

As there are limited spots available bookings must be made in advance via the link below and is limited to two people per booking.
